Welcome to our home!

Laughter is the best medicine in the world ~Milton Berle

Ain't it the truth? I am lucky to have a dear friend who has an amazing sense of humour that she uses to lighten a mood, bring people together or make an awkward situation funny. Whenever life gets challenging, I can always count on her to crack me up and make me feel better.

Humour is part of our everyday lives and these days we need more of it! That's why this season, through several of our events, performances and exhibitions, we will be exploring how humour can ignite a sense of play, reveal truths and help us to overcome hardship.

Three of the four live music performances in our Classic Concert Series include quirky, light-hearted and amusing repertoire (see page 6). Our popular pARTy@PdA series of six adult-only art parties includes Cartoons and Cocktails where participants collaborate in comic jamming and an exquisite corpse game while enjoying an appie buffet and fun libations (see page 8).

Several of our free events will also delve into the theme of humour: Reflections - Lantern Making and Storytelling in December, Art After Dark: A Night of the Arts for Teens in May and our annual student art exhibition in June. Stay tuned for more details as the events draw closer.

As you look through the guide, you'll note that each humour-themed event is identified by a laughing theatrical mask icon. But even if an event doesn't include the icon, it doesn't mean it won't be fun!

We have lots of engaging, inspiring and enjoyable activities set for the season that are sure to bring a smile to your face or joy to your heart. Bring your kids to our free Family Days at PdA (page 3), gather the whole family for our Summer Teen Theatre Troupe performances of The Windsinger in July (page 3), or simply join us for a glass of wine at any of our Friday night exhibition opening receptions (page 9).

Indeed, even if they don't outright make you laugh, we're sure all our 2019/2020 season events, performances and exhibitions will brighten your day!

Joan McCauley
Executive Director, Place des Arts

The 2019 Summer Teen Theatre Troupe presents The Windsinger

Free All-Ages Shows • TD Community Plaza • Town Centre Park Coquitlam

Magic! Betrayal! Revenge! Gather the family, pack a picnic and come to Town Centre Park for a lively outdoor performance of The Windsinger, a family-friendly adaptation of Shakespeare's The Tempest.

The story takes place on an enchanted island to which the sorcerer Prospero, once a Duke in Italy, and his daughter Miranda have been exiled by Prospero's wicked brother Antonio and the King of Naples, Alonso. Prospero takes revenge on the two and, with the help of his airy sprite Ariel and some powerful magic, creates a violent storm that shipwrecks them and several others on the island. A series of mystical events arouse feelings of guilt and remorse in Antonio and Alonso, who then agree to restore Prospero's Dukedom. After this happy reconciliation, Ariel transports everyone home to Italy, and all ends well.

Classic Concert Series

Enjoy superb live music performances right in your own back yard! Our talented music teachers offer up four diverse concerts this season, with three of them including a nod to humour, our theme for the season.

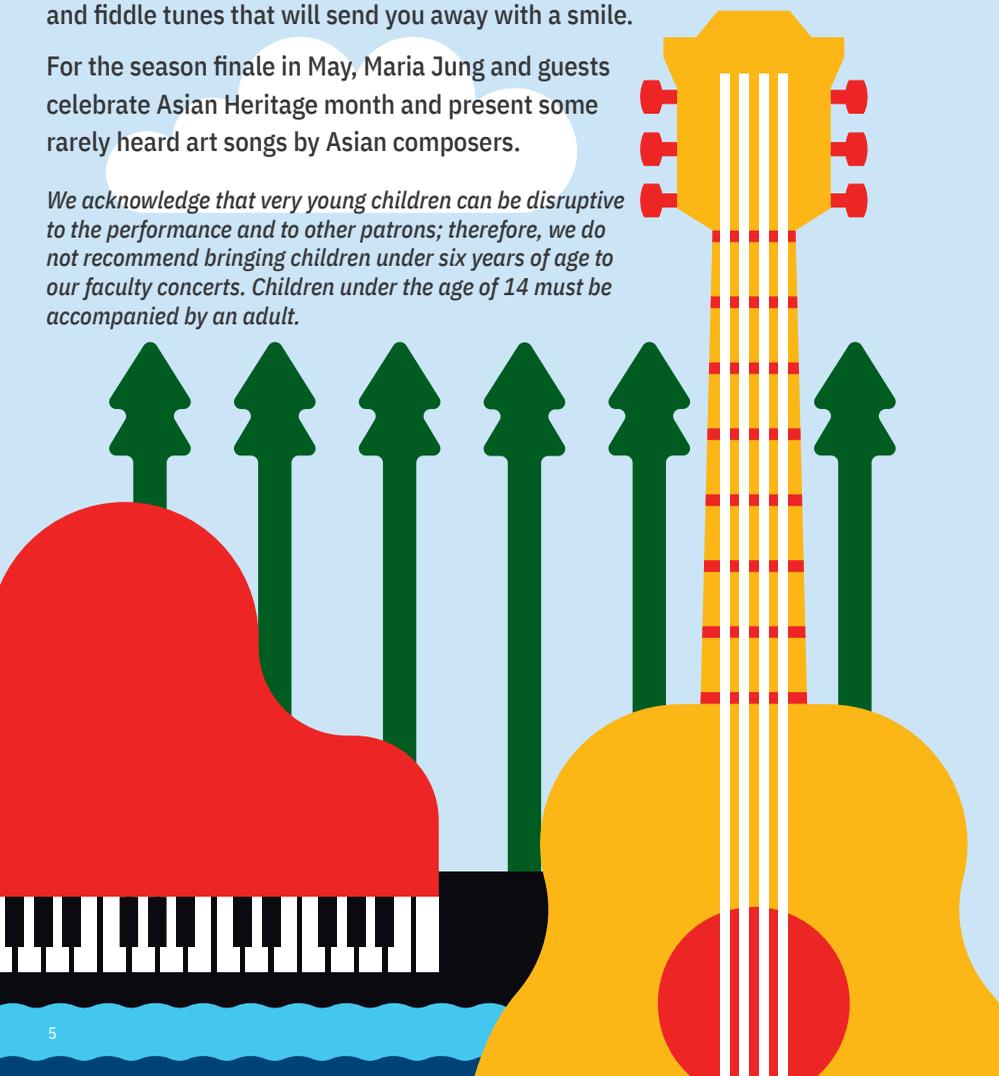

The season launches in October with a quirky clarinet and piano concert featuring off-the-beaten-path, light-hearted music.

Our popular annual Celebration of Robbie Burns featuring Blackthorn returns in January. Blackthorn's raucous performance includes some of Burns' humorous poetry put to song and is sure to elicit more than a few giggles.

In April, Triskellion presents heartfelt yet playful harp, flute and fiddle tunes that will send you away with a smile.

For the season finale in May, Maria Jung and guests celebrate Asian Heritage month and present some rarely heard art songs by Asian composers.

We acknowledge that very young children can be disruptive to the performance and to other patrons; therefore, we do not recommend bringing children under six years of age to our faculty concerts. Children under the age of 14 must be accompanied by an adult.

Immer Kleiner – Always Smaller

Saturday, October 19 • 7:00 pm • Trang-Tina Nguyen and Francois Houle

Have you ever seen or heard music performed where the clarinet shrinks down to just the mouthpiece? This intriguing concert explores clarinet and piano repertoire that is off the beaten path, with a definite accent on lightheartedness.

The works are highly entertaining, offering a glimpse into the lighter side of classical music. Hear works by Reissiger, Saint-Saëns, Schreiner, Gershwin, D'Rivera, Milhaud and Rimsky-Korsakov — all great composers with a twisted sense of humour!

A Celebration of Robbie Burns with Blackthorn

Saturday, January 18 • Scottish-inspired Supper 6:00 pm • Concert 7:30 pm

Join us for our annual celebration of Scotland's National Bard, Robbie Burns! Fiddler Rosie Carver with Celtic band Blackthorn and a special guest piper feature the musical traditions of Scotland with a special focus on Burns' songs and poems. Heart-wrenching airs and ballads, humorous songs with rousing choruses and lively jigs and reels are brought to life with Blackthorn's luscious harmonies and complex instrumentation.

The concert starts at 7:30 pm or come early at 6:00 pm to enjoy a delicious Scottish-inspired supper. A piping-in of the Haggis, followed by a recitation of Burns' Address to a Haggis, round out the long-standing traditions that are a must at any Robbie Burns' birthday celebration.

The Humours of Love

Saturday, April 4 • 7:00 pm • Rebecca Blair and The Triskellion Ensemble

Join Triskellion, featuring harpist Rebecca Blair, singer and flutist Michelle Carlisle and fiddler Rosie Carver, for an evening of beautiful music inspired by the heart. The ensemble will perform music both old and new celebrating love, laughter and longing.

Songs of the Far East

Saturday, May 9 • 7:00 pm • Maria Jung, Szu Wen Wang and Yenny Yeeun Lee

Three artists with Asian heritage explore the world of Asian poetry and melodies. Soprano Szu Wen Wang and Mezzo-Soprano Yenny Yeeun Lee, accompanied by pianist Maria Jung, perform art songs by Asian composers that are not often performed in Canada. To some, these songs will be familiar tunes while others will find the music quite extraordinary. Experience the beauty of Asian poetry along with melodies that are full of different colours!

Tickets

Students* & Seniors $16 • Adults $21

Robbie Burns Supper & Concert $41 (concert only as above)

**Student pricing is available for all Place des Arts students, regardless of age, or for students holding a valid student card from other institutions.*

Pottery, Pizza and Pinot #1

Friday, October 25 • 6:00 – 9:00 pm

Pizzas will be fired on brand new food-safe stones.

Festive Felting

Friday, December 6 • 7:00 – 9:00 pm

In a social and relaxed atmosphere, learn basic techniques of wet felting from our community engagement specialist and fibre artist Catherine Dumaine. Then create your own felted keepsakes or gifts while enjoying complimentary sweet and savory tidbits and, perhaps, a glass of wine. With the knowledge you gain, you can continue making felted items at home!

Browse our Christmas Boutique while you're here and receive a 10% discount on your purchases of locally handcrafted artisan wares.

Pottery, Pizza and Pinot #2

Friday, March 6 • 6:00 – 9:00 pm

Our pottery pARTy is so popular, we're offering it twice this season! For those of you who can't make the first edition in October, now's your chance to join us and find out what all the buzz is about! (See description on previous page.)

Pizzas will be fired on brand new food-safe stones.

Cartoons and Cocktails

Friday, April 24 • 7:00 – 9:00 pm

Join artist Oliver McTavish-Wisden to stretch your storytelling muscles through the joys of comic jamming: collaborative, improv drawing that produces hilarious results! When you've had enough of that, dive into the surrealist drawing game Exquisite Corpse to collectively birth some strange, comical, often grotesque creatures. The bar will be serving playful cocktails sure to inspire your comedic creations!

Palette . . . eat, paint, create!

Friday, May 8 • 7:00 – 9:00 pm

Palette . . . eat, paint, create is an evening to inspire the artist in everyone! In the comfortable setting of Place des Arts' Leonore Peyton Salon, yummy appetizers and (perhaps) a glass of wine will get you primed to unleash your inner artist. In a social and relaxed environment, come have some fun with paint and get creative!
