

SUPPLY LIST

So you think you can't paint in watercolour? With Dawn Livera

Winter 9 weeks: Jan 13-Mar 10

What you will need:

- 1-2 pads of 9 x 12" watercolour paper - get two different types and try them both out if you like (I usually use Strathmore 140lb cold press - yellow cover)
- Watercolour paints: red, blue, yellow and brown (permanent rose, cerulean blue, lemon yellow and burnt sienna) and any other colours you would like. If you already have watercolour paints and/or brushes, we can work with what you have
- 1 brown or dark grey watercolour pencil crayon
- 1 round brush (size 6ish)
- 1 flat brush (1/4" or 1/2")
- 1 bamboo brush (size 6ish)
- 1 plastic or ceramic palette with space for mixing paint (the lid of a yogurt tub can work)
- 1 HB pencil
- 1 eraser
- 1 pencil sharpener
- 1 pair of scissors
- 1 roll of masking tape
- 2-3 water containers (empty yogurt tubs work well)
- Paper towels or old sponge for wiping brushes.
